

Uncommon Standards at an Uncommon Value.

One of the first things you will notice about this ranch style home is the welcoming full width front covered porch. As you enter the home, you will appreciate the roominess of the large great room which is accentuated by tall vaulted ceilings. The split bedroom design offers great separation between the spacious master bedroom and other rooms. The roominess of the master bedroom extends to its large bathroom and walk in closet.

